Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a method, classified in class 205, subclass 205.
- II. Claims 5-9, drawn to a method, classified in class 205, subclass 211.
- III. Claims 10-14, drawn to a method, classified in class 205, subclass 211.
- IV. Claims 15-20, drawn to a method, classified in class 205, subclass 205.
- V. Claims 21-27, drawn to a method, classified in class 205, subclass 210.
- VI. Claim 28, drawn to a method, classified in class 205, subclass 210.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II, III, IV, V and VI are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions have different designs, modes of operation, and effects.

Group I is directed to a method requiring the step of exposing the metal seed layer to an agitated rinse.

Group II is directed to a method requiring the step of exposing the metal seed layer to a liquid that includes a surfactant and requiring a first station and a second station.

Group III is directed to a method requiring the step of exposing the metal seed layer to an organic solvent and requiring a first station and a second station.

Group IV is directed to a method requiring the step of exposing the metal seed layer to activated hydrogen at a pressure of at least 0.1 atmosphere.

Group V is directed to a method requiring the step of exposing the metal seed layer to an oxidant solution so as to form an oxidized surface layer on the metal seed layer.

Group VI is directed to a method requiring exposing the metal seed layer to a liquid that includes a surfactant.

The "exposing" step in each of the methods above is different and unrelated. The metal seed layer is treated in a different way.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
